

LATIN FOR HONORS CREDIT

The following is a list of my expectations for honors students.

HOMEWORK:

- Every student can expect at least 30 minutes of homework every night. Honors students should sometimes expect 45 minutes to an hour.
- Honors students will often have at least 25% more lines of homework.

QUIZZES:

- Honors students will often have at least 25% more work to do on a quiz (e.g., additional problems or lines).
- Expectations for memorization will be higher. There will usually be no use of charts and others aids during quizzes or exams.

PARTICIPATION:

- Expectations for participation will be higher, especially when reading at sight.

GRADING:

- There will be a more challenging grading system/rubric or set of requirements for papers, projects and longer assignments.
